

Artists Along the Bitterroot Studio Tour Application 2011

Mission Statement: AAB is a Bitterroot Valley Montana organization of professional artists representing a wide variety of mediums who collectively offer a unique annual spring tour by opening their studios and galleries to the public.

Call for Artists Submission Guidelines

1. Please complete form and mail along with a CD, or e-mail to the AAB coordinator along with 5 JPEG (1800 x 1200 pixels or 4"x6" 300 dpi) images of original works. Only digital images will be accepted. Please include titles, size and media. Artwork submitted to the three-person jury panel must have been produced within the last two years.
2. Studio areas must be presented separately from other business interests or living arrangements during the tour.
3. Members are required to live and produce their art in the Bitterroot Valley (Lolo to Sula).
4. Members of the same household need to apply separately and will receive a separate listing in all promotional materials.
5. The application deadline is February 1, 2010 for the June 3rd, 4th & 5th, 2011 studio tour. Notification of acceptance will be Feb 15, 2011. Upon acceptance a fee of $175 per year per artist to cover advertising, marketing materials, signs, event insurance and opening reception, must be paid by Feb 25, 2011.
- 6.: Each studio handles their own sales and no commission is paid to Artists Along the Bitterroot.
7. Submissions will not be accepted that appear to be copied in part or in whole from the work of other artists.

Please print information clearly.
